

THE FIVE

"The Five" are groups of men or ladies that raise the bar in Christian expectations through strong, intentional bible reading, theological study, and accountability in Christian living. It is a year-long commitment, and groups will meet every other week. You are welcome to join a group of "The Five" and a Home Group.

Things accomplished through the group:

- Reading through the Bible completely (most likely multiple times)
- Reading through a Systematic Theology
- Reading through a book (biblical leadership, christian living, or theological).
- Community (because of the intense mission).

Expectations:

Commitment:

- To attend each group - keep up with reading
- Confidentiality
- Regular communication with your group
- Accountability
- On completing the reading
- On Christian living
- On anything else decided as a group.

What will be gained:

- Stronger biblical vocabulary
- Strong friendships
- Strong biblical knowledge
- Understanding of Biblical Theology through Systematic Theology reading
